Ollie's Run

About 19 bikes turn up at the Homebase car park for this year's Ollie's Run.

Ollie's girls came along and found spare pillion seats for the run, which was led by Bill H.

The run took us up over the Mendips, where it was a tad chilly, before dropping down to the Chew Valley and a stop at the Chew Valley Lake Café.

Where we were beset by a plague of insects, then after the refreshment and comfort stop we rode back to where we started from earlier, although one bike peeled off to go home forgetting they had a guest on the back.
