Taunton MAG Rally

Wasn't it a lovely day the day we went to Bridgwater!

Well it was if you could ignore the wind gusting across the Somerset levels, which gave us some difficulties erecting the marquees for Taunton MAG's Tone Vale Tea Rally on the Thursday.

However, eventually after much struggling, which saw Debz and Mary lifted off the ground at one point, the marquees went up, but it was touch and go at one point!

Friday gave us some scares as well with the wind not dying down till late in the evening, but the rest of the weekend was glorious even if the nights were a tad frosty.

With over 170 folk booked in Taunton MAG's first rally was a huge success, much to the relief of Tim & Sarah.

Unfortunately Karen, one of our members broke her ankle dancing and spent most of the weekend in Bridgwater and Taunton Hospitals, get well soon Karen.

Think Bike Day

North Somerset MAG helped out with a Local Authority initiative to educate drivers about the risks posed by 'blind spots' in their field of vision. Council Road Safety Officer, Garrad, visited Sainsbury's in Worle to fit free blind spot mirrors to willing owner's vehicles. MAG members talked to them about the work we do and the risks we face, including manhole covers and road surfaces etc.

Several car drivers told us they came to Sainsbury's as they had heard about the event in local news items and they wanted to get the mirrors as they were concerned about the issues.

A number of them said they had family or friends who were bikers.

Some visiting bike riders took MAG information and membership forms away with them too.

And the sun shone....eventually! Soggy

Weston Bike Nights

The RBLR Weston Bike Nights resumed this month with a very good turn out on the first meeting 718 going through the gate.

Soggy took the new W&NS Group stand down to the bike night, and will continue to do so throughout the summer, if we have one?

If your free on a Thursday night why not come down, it's all in a good cause.
